

Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective April 14, 2003
Revised September 23, 2013

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)

We are committed to protecting the privacy of all health information we create and maintain as a result of the health care we provide you. Your "protected health information" (PHI) includes information about your past, present or future health, health care we provide you and payment for your health care contained in the record of care and services provided by University of Kentucky health care facilities. The purpose of this Notice is to explain who, what, when, where and why your protected health information may be used or disclosed, and assist you in making informed decisions when authorizing anyone to use or disclosure your PHI.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

I To request in writing to the treatment area a restriction on the uses and disclosures of protected health information as described in this Notice. We are not required to agree to the restriction you request. We may not be able to comply with your request in certain situations, which include emergency treatment, disclosures to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services and uses and disclosures that do not require your authorization.

I To request in writing a restriction on disclosures for payment or health care operations when paying out-of-pocket in full for health care item or service. We are required to agree to this restriction.

I To obtain a paper copy of this Notice and upon written request submitted to the UK health care facility maintaining the record, inspect and/or obtain a copy of your health record.

I To amend your health record by submitting a written request with the reasons supporting the request to the Medical Records department. We may deny your request if a) the record was not created by us, unless the person that created the record is no longer available to make the amendment; b) the record is not part of the health information used to make decisions about you; c) we believe the record is correct and complete; or d) you would not have the right to inspect and copy the record as described herein.

I To request in writing to the Privacy Officer a written list of disclosures we made of your health information, except that we are not required to account for disclosures for purposes of treatment, payment, operations, directory notification, disaster relief, as allowed under certain circumstances by law or pursuant to your authorization.

I To request in writing to the treatment area that we communicate with you by a specific method and at a specific location. We will typically communicate with you in person; or by letter or telephone.

I To revoke your authorization to use or disclose PHI at any time except, unless your authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and except to the extent your PHI has already been disclosed pursuant to your authorization. Your revocation request must be made in writing to the Medical Records unit of the facility where you originally filed your authorization.

I To be notified of a breach of your unsecured protected health information

I To receive a copy of your medical record in electronic format, if possible.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Maintain the privacy of your protected health information and provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information.

Abide by the terms of the Notice currently in effect. We have the right to change our Notice of Privacy Practices and we will apply the change to all of your personal health information, including information obtained prior to the change.

Post notice of any changes to our Privacy Practices in the lobby and make a copy available to you upon request.

CONTACT FOR QUESTIONS/COMPLAINTS/REQUESTS

Direct your questions, complaints and requests made pursuant to this Notice to: Privacy Officer, 2333 Alumni Drive, Suite 200, Lexington, KY 40517, (859)323-1184 or (859)323-8002. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services. Filing a complaint will not result in retaliation.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PHI

We may use and disclose your PHI for the following purposes:

Treatment: We may use and disclose your protected health information to anyone involved in the provision of health care to you, including for example, University physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and other medical professionals, including our medical students, residents and volunteers. We may also disclose your protected health information to outside treating medical professionals and staff as deemed necessary for your health care.

Payment: We may use and disclose your protected health information to billing and collection agencies, insurance companies and health plans to collect payment for our services.

Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose your protected health information for our own health care operations. For example, we may use your protected health information to assess your care in an effort to improve the quality and safety of our service to you; to evaluate the skills, qualifications and performance of our health care providers; to provide training programs to students, trainees and other health care providers. In addition, our accountants, auditors and attorneys may use your protected health information to assist our compliance with applicable law.

Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective April 14, 2003
Revised September 23, 2013

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PHI

We may use and disclose your PHI for the following purposes:

Business Associates There are some services provided to our organization through contracts with business associates, such as laboratory and radiology services. We may disclose your protected health information to our business associates so that they can perform these services. We require the business associates to safeguard your information to our standards.

Individuals Involved With Your Care: We may disclose your protected health information to family or others identified by you or who is involved in your care or payment for your care. We may also notify a family member, or another person responsible for your care, about your location and general condition, unless you object by contacting the caregiver at the facility providing your care.

Legally Required Disclosures & Public Health: We may disclose your protected health information as required by law, including to government officials to prevent or control disease, to report child, adult or spouse abuse, to report reactions or problems with products, and to report births and deaths.

Health Oversight Activities We may disclose your protected health information to a federal or state health oversight agency that is authorized to oversee our operations.

Workers Compensation: We may disclose your protected health information for workers compensation or similar programs.

Serious Threats to Health and Safety We may disclose your protected health information if necessary to prevent or reduce the risk of a serious or imminent threat to the health or safety of an individual or the general public.

Law Enforcement & Subpoenas: We may disclose your protected health information to law enforcement such as limited information for identification and location purposes, or information regarding suspected victims of crime, including crimes committed on our premises. We may also disclose your protected health information to others as required by court or administrative order, or in response to a valid summons or subpoena.

Inmates: We may disclose your protected health information to a correctional facility which has custody of you if necessary a) to provide health care to you; b) for the health and safety of others; or, c) for the safety and security of the correctional facility.

Information Regarding Decedents: We may disclose your protected health information regarding a deceased person to: 1) coroners and medical examiners to identify cause of death or other duties, 2) funeral directors for their required duties and 3) to procurement organizations for purposes of organ and tissue donation.

Research: We may also disclose your protected health information where the disclosure is solely for the purpose of designing a study, or where the disclosure concerns decedents, or an institutional review board or privacy board has determined that obtaining authorization is not feasible and protocols are in place to ensure the privacy of your health information. In all other situations, we may only disclose your protected health information for research purposes with your authorization.

Treatment Alternatives We may contact you with information about treatment alternatives or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fund Raising: We may contact you as part of a fund raising effort. You may opt out of fund raising communications by using the contact information listed on the fund raising material you receive Directory information: We may disclose your name, location and general condition to those persons who ask for you by name or to members of the clergy. You may object to such disclosure by contacting the Registration Office/Desk at the facility from which you received this Notice.

Appointment Reminders: We may use and disclose your PHI to provide a reminder to you about an appointment.

DISCLOSURES REQUIRING AUTHORIZATION

1. Sale and Marketing of PHI. We may not sell your PHI or use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes without your authorization.
2. Psychotherapy Notes. Most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes require an authorization.
3. All other uses and Disclosures. All other uses and disclosures of your protected health information will only be made pursuant to your written authorization, which you have the right to revoke at any time, except to the extent we have already made disclosures pursuant to your authorization.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and to make new Notice provisions effective for all your protected health information that we maintain by posting the revised Notice at our facilities, making copies of the revised Notice upon request to the facility or the Privacy Officer, or posting the revised Notice on our website.
